TRIAL SET FOR MARCH

Shockley Gets Two Months to Prepare.

GREETED BY A LARGE CROWD

Says "Net Guilty" to the Two Murder Charges.

Case Set for Trial March 22nd, After a Wrangle Among the Attorneys.

J. M. Shockley, the confessed nurderer of Motorman Amasa Gleason Conductor Thomas Brighton, ntered a p lea of not guilty to the two harges of murder against him in the District court yesterday, and his case nas been set for trial on March 22, 1904. he large crowd that had gathered in e courtroom shows the strong the populace over the young man. Every seat in the room was occupied. ind not a few women were among the immense crowd. All eyes were centered upon every move of the prisoner, and it is reasonable to predict that the trial of the case will excite quite as much if not more interest than did the Peter District Judge Hall was on the bench when the prisoner was brought in hand-cuffed to Thomas McKelvie, charged with burglary. When his case had been called and the prisoner asked to plead stood at his full height with his unds clasped before him and said. Not guilty to each information. After he defendant had pleaded and resumed his seat District Attorney Eichner arose and asked the court to have the cases set for trial on March 15th. This was objected to by the defendant's counsel, and Attorney Smith announced that it would be impossible to be ready at the determinent of the set of the s ate. He said that it would be occessary to communicate with the acused's relatives and that perhaps it would prove necessary to secure de-positions from witnesses at the prisoner's home, and asked that the cases be set for April 15th. After hearing arguments on both sides Judge Hall set the case for Tuesday, March 22nd.

As the prisoner was taken out the crowd surged to the doors to get a glimpse of him before he went down on the clavator and then hurried down to he elevator, and then hurried down to see him enter the carriage waiting at the east door to convey him to his call

All the fixtures and stock of the Daynes company pass into the hands of the Carstensen & Anson company, including 125 planes, organs and planelas, stringed instruments, phonosyspals and records, quantities of sheet music—in short, everything in the store but the old accounts, which are to be serified by J. J. Daynes, Jr., who will have a desk for a short time at the old store.

Carstensen & Anson, who have heretofore conducted a music store almost directly opposite the one now purchased, yesterday moved a large part of their stock hato the new store, 74 South Main street, where they will hereafted conduct their business. The officers of the Carstensen & Anson company are John Darn, president; A. B. Carstensen, vice-president and general manager; J. H. Anson, secretary; P. J. Anson, treasurer, George Dern is a member of the board of directors, and Fred Deby, will also take an active part in the mane.

AN UNFORTUNATE WAIF.

Little Girl With Gray Hair and Pink Eyes Picked Up in the Snow.

One of the queerest lodgers ever shelered within the walls of the county lad was brought in from Murray by Depity Sheriff Booth lest night.

She is a little girl with gray halr and she is a little girl with gray hair and pink eyes, almost a typical albino. She gives "Josephine Taylor" as her name and it years as her age. Marshel Michael Mauss of Murray found her yesterdsy afternoon at the Cottenwood bridge. She was stampling her feet to keep them warm and laughting and talking to herself.

When the big-hearted officer had supplied her with warm food and thawed he out beside a big stove, the child told her story. She said she had come, with her parents, from Nebraska to Provo where both her parents died. Being orphaned and homeless, she started on foot for Ogden, where she claims to have a brother working on the Lucin cut-off.

A little shawi to cover her head, a boy's overcost and thin underclothing constituted her wardrobe. She had no overshoes and her shoes were badly worn. Not-withstanding her sad pight, the child showed no inclination to beg, and might have perished from cold and hunger had she not fallen into kindly hands. She seems rather feeble-minded, which makes the case still more affecting.

Sheriff Enery will communicate with the officers at Provo and, if her story is true, will seek to have the county provide a home for her. pink eyes, almost a typical albino. Six urlosity that has been aroused among Fails to Furnish Bond and Is Held on the Charge of Forging the $1500 Check.

> When Glenson E. Rice was arraigned before Judge Diehl yesterday morning on the charge of forging a cheek for $150 in the name of S. W. Darling, his atforney provided that he would take all the time allowed before making his plea. Judge Dienl gave him until tomorrow and a search of clock to enter the plea, and fixed his bond at $500. Rice then returned to juil and, up to a late hour last night, had not given bond. He is a member in good standing of both the Eagles and the Woodmen, and members of those orders are investigating his case with a view to rendering him any assist ance to which he may prove himself entitled. A. B. White, whom Rice claims to be the real forger; and whom the officers believe is a fictitious person, has not yet been heard from. It is still a mystery, however, where Rice could have secured a copy of Darling's signature or learned that he had a $1500 bank account. the charge of forging a check for $1500 in
